An Earnest Appeal

Greetings from the organizing committee of MASICON 2025, Kolhapur.

On behalf of Organising Committee of MASICON 2025, we have immense pleasure and utmost pride to share with you that KSS has been bestowed with the honour of hosting MASICON 2025, The Annual State Conference of Maharashtra State Chapter of ASI, to be held at Kolhapur from 6th to 9th February, 2025.

This honour and recognition extended to KSS is on the account of its magnificent credentials in the past manifesting in KSS bagging 13 consecutive "Best City Chapter Award" & winning National "Best City Branch Award 2023" by the Association of Surgeons of India. Kolhapur Surgical Society has earned these awards based on its expansive and knowledge intense contents of the academic events conducted with exquisite organizational skills and team work. Nothing great was ever achieved without team work and mutual beneficial partnership!

Kolhapur Surgical Society and the organizing committee of MASICON 2025 have enormous pleasure and privilege in inviting you to participate in this dream - "MASICON 2025." It aims at not merely strengthening and expanding the skills of General as well as Laparoscopic Surgeons but also facilitating the acquisition of new skills.

We, the members of KSS and the organizing committee, are committed to create a unique and overwhelming experience defined by academics, learning, sharing, camaraderie, hospitality and above all irresistible Kolhapuri cuisine. The organizing committee requests you to be part of this "sure-to-be-memorable" experience as various avenues will be made available to showcase and promote your products along with opportunities to interact with over 1500+ delegates from all over Maharashtra and entire nation.

We have always been appreciative and thankful to you for contributing in our academic endeavours of all types in past. Our implicit faith and strength in relationship with Industry have always been a huge motivation for us to take on such challenges as MASICON 2025. We have always acknowledged the role of industry in providing standard therapy, constantly evolving through unrelenting research, for patients afflicted by wide ranging medical conditions along with providing education to doctors and patients through partnership with Academic Societies like KSS.

Friends, let us join our hands in making this dream called MASICON 2025 work its magic which will set highest benchmark of academic exchange.
